

10th KEK Concert

JUN MATSUOKA PIANO RECITAL
— A Picture of Piano Music —

Thursday, February 10, 2005, starts at 6:00pm

At the Lecture Hall in KEK Kenkyu Honkan Bldg.

Ravel	Jeux d'eaux
Granados	"El fandango de candil" from "Goyescas"
Debussy	"Estampes" --- "Pagodes", "La soiree dans Grenade" and "Jardins sous la pluie"
Liszt	Mephisto-Walzer S.110-2, "Der Tanz in der Dorfschenke"
Musorgsky	Pictures at an Exhibition

[Piano] Jun Matsuoka

Jun Matsuoka started playing the piano at age of ten years. After graduating from the instrumental department of the Tokyo National University of Music and Fine Arts, he entered graduate school of the same university. Since 1993, he studied for two years at Liszt Ferenc Academy of Music in Hungary. He is the first Japanese pianist that was awarded the first place at Brahms International Competition of Music. In 2003 he was invited to "Modern Musical Festival" held in Kiev. Now he teaches at Showa College of Music and Tokyo National University of Fine Arts & Music.