

KAKENHI Writing Seminar

Let's Prepare an Effective Research Story for Your Proposal

Makoto Shida, ASHBi-URA

ASHBi Research Acceleration Unit
WPI-ASHBi, Kyoto University

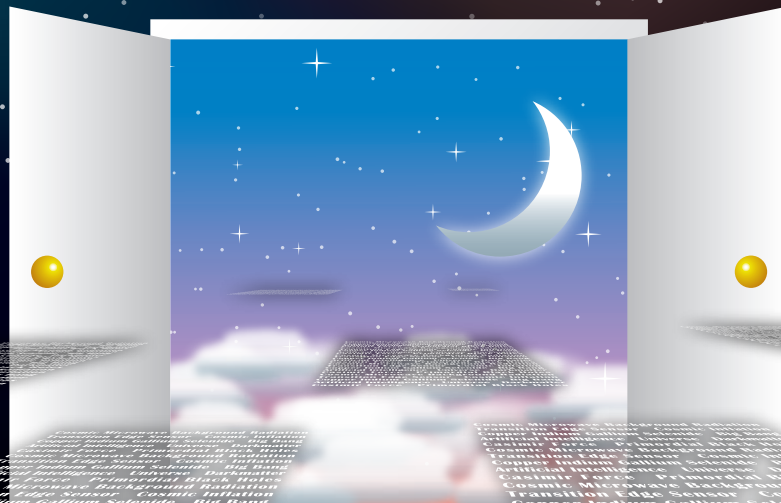

Since 2019, Makoto has been working as the URA at WPI-ASHBi engaged in various research support. His KAKENHI Writing Seminar is very popular among foreign researchers and students who are starting research in Japan, attracting more than 1000 participants from over 100 Universities throughout Japan each year.

Tuesday, July 30, 2024

16:00-17:00 (From 15:30 Coffee Time)

Seminar Hall, 1F, San-Go-Kan Bldg., KEK Tsukuba Campus

This seminar is for early career scientists who are planning to apply for KAKENHI. It will first provide an overview of KAKENHI and its review system, followed by an introduction to effective storytelling that incorporates the reviewer's perspective when preparing a research proposal.

Organizer: WPI-QUP, Alliance Promotion Department (KEK)

Contact: Katsumasa Ikematsu (katsumasa.ikematsu@kek.jp)