Hakone 箱根

Hakone is known in history as a checkpoint on the old Tokaido Road, which linked the eastern and western parts of Japan. There are many buildings of historic interest to visit here, as well as sites connected to traditional culture.

Hakone is also a showcase for art. Art-related attractions include Japan's first open-air museum, the Hakone Open-Air Museum, as well as the Venetian Glass Museum, the Museum of Saint-Exupéry and the Little Prince in Hakone, the Pola Museum of Art, the Lalique Museum, Hakone, the Narukawa Art Museum and others boasting first-rate collections.

Nature lovers will enjoy the numerous parks and botanical gardens of Hakone, including Hakone Gora Park and Onshi-Hakone Park, which feature displays of seasonal flowers. It's a great sightseeing spot, with attractions to enjoy throughout the year. (by Odakyu Electric Railway)

古来東海道の要衝であり、「天下の険」と謳われた難所箱根峠のふもとには宿場や関所が置かれた。近代以降は保養地・観光地として発展。各所に湧く温泉や、芦ノ湖、大涌谷、仙石原などがとりわけ有名である。(ウィキペディア引用)

Nature

Hakone, part of the Fuji-Hakone-Izu National Park, is a popular sightseeing area where visitors can enjoy natural beauty, colorful flowers blooming throughout the year and scenic views including Mount Fuji, Lake Ashi and Owakudani.

● Mount Fuji

Hakone and Mount Fuji are subjects immortalized in the woodblock prints of Hokusai. Only in Hakone can viewers enjoy the sight of the large red torii gate of Hakone-jinja Shrine standing in Lake Ashi, with Mount Fuji rising majestically in the background.

At spots like Owakudani and Otome Pass, visitors can feast their eyes on a stirring and memorable view of Mount Fuji all the way down to its foothills.

● Owakudani 大涌谷

Seen from above on the ropeway, Owakudani, also called Jigokudani ("the Valley of Hell"), is a stirring sight. "Black jewel eggs," eggs cooked in the area's thermal heat sources, are a Hakone specialty. According to legend, eating one is said to add seven years to your life. Visitors to Owakudani can enjoy the authentic taste of this unusual treat.

History and culture 名所、旧跡

● Hakone-jinja shrine 箱根神社

A large red torii gate is the landmark identifying this 1,250-year old shrine. Huge crowds of worshippers come to the shrine during New Year celebrations.

● Hakone Checkpoint 箱根関所

This checkpoint was installed on the Old Tokaido Road, the main highway linking Edo (modern Tokyo) and Kyoto, to supervise the movement of people on this east-west route. Today, the restored facility is a popular tourist attraction.

Craft 工芸

● Hatajuku Yosegi Kaikan (Wooden Craft Hall)

Traditional wooden works - Hakone-Zaiku Marquetry which have thrived in Hatajuku since the Edo Period are displayed and sold here. You can see a demonstration of the Hakone-Zaiku Marquetry manufacturing process. You can try to make Yosegi coasters with materials prepared under the polite guidance of Yosegi craftsmen. (The operations are only pasting and polishing without danger operation, so take it easy.) It's reservation only

Hot springs (onsen) 箱根の温泉

Hakone is also famous for its hot springs. Even more unusual is the fact that there are 17 different hot springs here in a relatively small area. For a long time, Hakone hot springs have been a favorite spot for relaxing, and there are numerous day spas in addition to hotels and inns offering overnight accommodation for the enjoyment of visitors.

● Overnight accommodations 温泉施設

Accommodations in Hakone offer a variety of hot springs good for everything from smoothing the skin to curative effects for various medical conditions. Guests can enjoy many different bathing facilities, ranging from large open-air baths and smaller open-air baths that can be reserved for private use to private baths in their rooms. Some also have separate buildings where beauty treatments for women are available.

● Day spas 日帰り温泉

Several day spas in Hakone welcome visitors for a dip. Facilities are well organized and many people come for the day to enjoy a bath in Hakone's hot springs. Some area hotels and traditional inns also make their bathing facilities available to day travelers.
