Kappabashi Dougu Street かつば橋道具街

Each shop hours are 09:00 to 17:00 (except for some shops). On Monday to Friday almost every shop are open. On Saturday about 90% shops are open. On Sunday and public holidays about 30% shops are open. Holidays vary by shop.

各店舗の営業時間は一部の店舗を除き、9時～17時となっております。休日は、かつば橋道具街全体としては定めていません。月曜日から金曜日は、ほぼ全店営業しております。土曜日は全体の90%強、日曜・祝日は30%程度が営業しています。

Merchants first began gathering in the Kappabashi area around 1912, selling old tools and a wide range of implements and hardware. Today, one can find almost every kind of restaurant equipment imaginable, including bakery equipment, Japanese, Western, and Chinese tableware, china, laquerware, restaurant equipment, packaging, containers, decorative goods, "fake" food samples, chefs' coats, signs, noren (shop curtains), bamboo wares, baking ingredients, food and beverage ingredients, confectionary wholesalers, Japanese furniture, Western furniture, kitchen equipment, refrigerators and refrigerated showcases, showcases, displays, shop design and construction services, and much more. At 800 meters (nearly a half-mile) in length, and with over 170 shops, this is Japan's largest shopping street devoted to kitchen implements.
